Head Quarters at Hoichten, October 16, N. S.

WE marched laſt Saturday to this Place, which is within a good League of Maeſtricht, and To-morrow we are to march through in one Day to Brey, the next Day to Hamont, and then to Eyndhoven, where we ſhall halt a Day; and proceed from thence in two Marches, the firſt to Oſterwick, and the next to Breda.

Liege, Oct. 17, N. S. The Arrival of the Prince of Orange at Oudenboſch hath deferr'd the Breaking up of the French Army about Louvain. They ſent away their Artillery on Sunday, and were to have marched into Winter Quarters Yeſterday; but at Eleven on Sunday Evening Orders were ſent to the Troops to remain in their Cantonment, till they ſaw what was the Intention of the Prince of Orange.

Hague, Oct. 17, N. S. We hear, that on the 13th Inſtant Major General Thierry, finding that Lillo could not be defended any longer, retired with his Garriſon to Cruys Schans, leaving only an Officer and a few Men to capitulate. The French immediately formed their Attacks againſt this laſt Place, which has ſince ſurrendred; but it is not known whether the Troops have been able to ſave themſelves, and retire as they have done hitherto; though the Letters this Day from Antwerp poſitively ſay, that Major General Thierry had ſurrender'd himſelf Priſoner of War, with about 800 Men. The Tax of Two per Cent. is agreed to in the Provinces of Zealand, Utrecht, Frize, and Groningen. The Payment of this new Tax is begun in the Town of Leyden; and, from the Appearance there, it is imagined that the Sums that will be raiſed, will greatly exceed the original Calculation. The States of Holland reſumed this Day their Deliberations; but have poſtponed, for a few Days, their Concluſion upon the Motion that was made by the Nobles, to make the Dignity of Stadtholder hereditary in the Prince of Orange's Family. All the Towns in the Province of Holland, except Amſterdam, have already given their Conſent, and it is not queſtion'd but that it will do the ſame; though it is generally ſaid, ſome Conditions and Reſtrictions will be propoſed not contain'd in the firſt Plan. The Towns of Teer Veer, Fluſhing, and Goes in Zealand, have likewiſe conſented to the Settlement in Favour of the Prince of Orange's Iſſue; but the Aſſembly of the Province of Guelderland have broke up without coming to any Reſolution, either upon the Tax of Two per Cent. or the Queſtion that was propoſed, namely, the Taking off the Limitation of the Power of Stadtholder in that Province. The Prince of Orange is expected at the Houſe in the Wood either this Evening or To-morrow. Letters from Bruſſels of the 15th Inſtant ſay that that the Auſtrians and Piedmonteſe had blocked up the Paſſage into Italy, and were preparing to renew the Siege of Genoa, from whence there was no Account of the Duke of Richelieu's Arrival. Letters from Paris ſay, that they had received Advices from Turkey of the 8th of September laſt, which mention, that the Engliſh, ſupported by the Indians, had blocked up Pondicherry by Land as well as by Sea, and that the ſaid Place being in Want of Proviſions, there was Reaſon to apprehend it could not long hold out.

Head Quarters at Eyndhoven, Oct. 20. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland ſet out this Morning from the Army for Breda, and left the Command of it under the Orders of General Ligonier. The Britiſh Corps marched the 17th from Hoichten to Brey, thence the 18th to Hamont, and Yeſterday reached this Place; To-morrow we are to march to Oſterwick, and the Day following to the Neighbourhood of Breda. The French, ſince the Reduction of the Forts Frederick Hendrick and Lillo, are preparing to put their Troops into Winter Quarters; and by the Intelligence received Yeſterday from Marſhal Saxe's Army about Louvain, they have been quite ſtill, and ſeem to have been hinder'd from going into Winter Quarters, by the Expectation of ſeeing the Deſign of the March of this Corps.

Hague, Oct. 20, N. S. The Propoſition for rendring the Dignity of Stadtholder hereditary in the Prince of Orange's Family, is not yet concluded, but the Deputies of Amſterdam being return'd this Night, it is thought that that Affair will be again taken into Conſideration Tomorrow by the States of Holland; and it is expected that next Week it will be propoſed to the States of Utrecht; and that the Province of Overyſſel intends to follow their Example. We have now certain Advice from Antwerp, that the Garriſons of Frederick Hendrick and Lillo were obliged to ſurrender themſelves Priſoners of War at the taking of the Cruys Schans. The Prince of Orange return'd to this Place the Day before Yeſterday; and his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland is expected here on Sunday or Monday next.

Whitehall, October 13, 1747.

Whereas it has been repreſented to his Majeſty, that ſeveral Horſes belonging to Thomas Pulleyn, of Burley, in the Weſt Riding of the County of York, Eſq; were lately killed in the Night Time, by Perſons unknown; as alſo, that ſeveral Horſes, belonging to his Tenants, had the Hair of their Tails cut off, and thruſt down their Throats, when in the Paſture, whereof they died in a ſhort Time; And whereas an Anonymous Letter hath been lately dropt, threatening further Deſtruction to the Cattle of the Tenants of the ſaid Mr. Pulleyn: His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the ſaid Crimes, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
